Mar. 10. 1853 21 Cornhill, Boston,

March 10, 1853.

My dear Sir;

Did you get my letter from Leicester, enclosing that from Ohio?

You ought to hear, at once, that a Hall has been engaged, in New York City, for the Annual Meeting of the American A.S.
Society, on Wednesday, May 11.
It is the Chinese Museum Assembly Room, in Broadway, near the Metropolitan Hotel.

A supper hall is engaged for Tuesday & Thursday, for the meetings of the Society, and its friends. —

This arrangement accords with the views of all the Committee, except Mr. Garrison.

— He says no meeting will be held in New York, and that the proprietors will withdraw their consent before the holding of the Meeting. —

However this may be, (and every thing surely will be done to guard against such a mischance), we think that it is of primary importance, if possible, to get an Anniversary

Meeting again in the City of N.Y. - Not for its effect upon that City, but for its moral effect upon the Country at large. It will be a decided triumph to hold a Meeting of the Society again ~~here~~ in that City; and one that will mark the progress of the Cause,
- All the Philadelphia members of the Committee & Society, agree, as to this step, with the Committee here. -

We presume that this will be a disappointment to our ~~the~~ Syracuse friends. No Syracuse

Further continues to amend. The rider & walks out.

we had voted to go, in case we could not go to N.Y., or Brooklyn. - We may have to resort thither yet. If we should meet there, it will probably be on the week following the N.Y. Anniversaries - say from Tuesday 17 to Thursday 19. inclusive
- or, more likely, Wednesday to Friday.

O. Johnson has accepted the post of Co-Editor of Standard.

I hope Cousin Lucretia continues to amend. My love to her, to Charlotte, John E., Joseph, and Bonny - all.

Henry F. Edes married Miss Darracott on Wednesday next.

Truly Yrs. S. May Jr.
